

I Am From...

I am from Indianapolis

I am from a mom and dad who love me and a grandma who helped raise me

I am from homemade chicken and noodles and peach pie with ice cream

I am from a big family

I am from crafts and puzzles and games played together

I am from family reunions and trips to the zoo

I am from always try your best

I am from fresh lilac bushes growing in the back yard

I am from the sound of a basketball bouncing into the night

I am from a broken arm and a scar on my knee from a fall.
