Directions for Character Facebook Cover Photo and Profile Picture:

Character Name – Who is the main character or an important character from the story you are reading. Write his/her name on the lines provided.

Profile Picture - Think about the character you chose from your book. Based on the descriptions the author has provided, or even pictures from the book, draw a headshot of your character in the small box to serve as your character's profile picture. On any status updates you provide, be sure to duplicate this picture next to your text.
