Characters Change...

Directions: Think about the main character in your story and how that character changed as you read. Then complete the following character study.

Title: __________________________________________

Author: ________________________________________

Main Character: __________________________________

Here are some words that describe the main character:
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

The problem that this character faced in the story was:
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

This is how the character handled the problem:
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________

This is how I think the character changed in the story:
________________________________________________
________________________________________________
________________________________________________