

I will never climb
high up in the tree.

201-220

Should I put it near, below or between the books?

201-220

I will never add
the last one.

201-220

Every school day
I start by eating food.

201-220

I will plant my own tree near the city.

201-220

The boy and his father had brown eyes.

201-220

I will help keep
the earth clean.

201-220

The name of our country is America.

201-220

I thought the light was left on.

221-240

Does it seem hard to close the door?

221-240

I will open the story and begin reading in my head.

221-240

I saw her sitting under the tree
while she ate something.

221-240

What is the next example?

221-240

I might come along if you don't say no.

221-240

I have a few stories to read.

221-240

It was important for the children to walk and not run.

241-260

My group got together at night.

241-260

Both of my feet were always tired.

241-260

The paper was white.

241-260

I got to walk a mile.

241-260

The children will play the game of Life.

241-260

I often put my car by the side of my house.

241-260

I will walk until it is night.

241-260

I could not go to a new state without my book.

261-280

Did you hear the second song?

261-280

Stop making a face at your friend!

261-280

The river will carry the four boats to the sea.

261-280

Did you have enough to eat.

261-280

Did you miss something because you were late?

261-280

The seed began to grow once I gave it water.

261-280

She took the book about the idea.

261-280

Sometimes the girl will leave too soon.

281-300

The young Indian will walk to the mountains?

281-300

The family will let her watch him sing the song.

281-300

It's almost time to talk about the list.

281-300

The tree is being cut down.

281-300

Far above the earth I saw a real star.

281-300
