The children sat on the stools in
the science room.

My mom turned on all the lamps
in the house.

Anna played with the toys in the living room.

The dog hid his bones all over the backyard.

Aaron set his books on the counter in the kitchen.

The child's stool was too tall for the science table.

The lamp's light was very dim in the dark house.

Anna's toy was lost somewhere in the living room.

The dog's bone was hidden in the backyard.

The book's pages got dirty on the counter in the kitchen.

The stool wasn't too tall for the science table.

The lamp isn't bright enough for the living room.

Anna told Cara she couldn't find the toy in the living room.

The dog can't find the bone that was hidden in the backyard.

We aren't sure how the book on the kitchen counter got dirty.
