

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

art supplies?

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

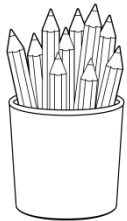

Are these

art supplies?

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

art supplies?

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

art supplies?

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined
noun possessive.

The paint that
belongs to the
girl is red.

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined
noun possessive.

The paint that
belongs to the
girl is red.

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined
noun possessive.

The paint that
belongs to the
girl is red.

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined
noun possessive.

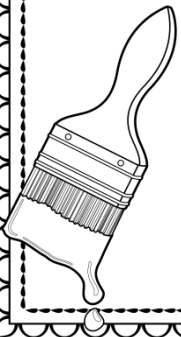

The paint that
belongs to the
girl is red.

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct
possessive form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

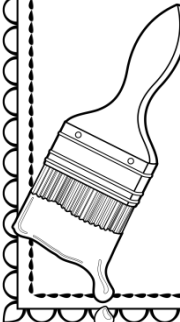

Are these the

supplies? (singular)

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct
possessive form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

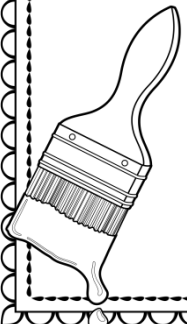

Are these the

supplies? (singular)

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct
possessive form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

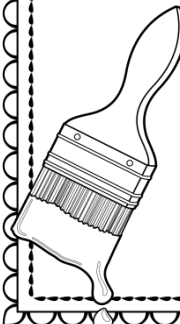

Are these the

supplies? (singular)

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct
possessive form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

Are these the

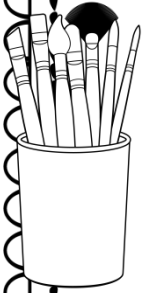

supplies? (singular)

Name: _____

Complete the sentence with the correct possessive noun and a common noun.

Lashaun has one colored pencil. It is yellow.

_____ is yellow.

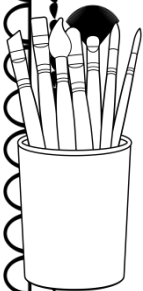

The class has artwork. It is wonderful.

The _____ is wonderful.

Name: _____

Lashaun has one colored pencil. It is yellow.

_____ is yellow.

The class has artwork. It is wonderful.

The _____ is wonderful.