

Possessive Nouns

A possessive noun shows ownership.

Alicia's favorite color to paint with is purple.

A possessive noun has an apostrophe.

Plural Possessive Nouns

A plural possessive noun shows that an object or objects is owned by more than one person.

These are the boys' paints.

A possessive noun has an apostrophe.

Forming Possessive Nouns

Singular Possessive

Plural Possessive

the hat that belongs to Christie

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the kitten that belongs to Mike

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the cup that belongs to Mom

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the laptop that belongs to the teacher

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the bananas that belong to Ryan

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the candy that belongs to her dad

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the pencil that belongs to the boy

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the book that belongs to my principal

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the walnut that belongs to the squirrel

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the chair that belongs to his uncle

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the scarf that belongs to Chris

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the television that belongs to Mr. Alexis

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the tusks that belong
to the walrus

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the desk that belong
to the boss

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the horn that belongs to the rhinoceros

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the whiskers that belong to the kittens

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the books that belong
to the students

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the pots that belong
to the chefs

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the bows that belong
to the cheerleaders

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the boots that belong
to the boys

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the toys that belong
to the children

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the feathers that belong to the geese

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the teeth that belong
to the lions

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the toothbrushes that belong to the sisters

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the money that belongs to the men

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the phones that belong to the women

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the chairs that belong to the tables

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the mats that belong to the gymnasts

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the basketballs that belong to the players

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the lessons that belong to the teachers

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name _____

Write the Possessives

Use the phrase on the cards to write the possessives correctly.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Name _____

Write the Possessives

Use the phrase on the cards to write sentences using the possessive correctly.

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

Sentences with Plurals

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Sentences with Possessives

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Sentences with Contractions

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The children sat on the stools
in the science room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

My mom turned on all the lamps in the house.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna played with the toys
in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog hid his bones all over the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Aaron set his books on the counter in the kitchen.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The child's stool was too tall for the science table.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The lamp's light was very dim in the dark house.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna's toy was lost somewhere in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog's bone was hidden in the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The book's pages got dirty on the kitchen counter.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The stool wasn't too tall for the science table.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The lamp isn't bright enough for the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna told Cara she couldn't find the toy in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog can't find the bone that was hidden in the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

We aren't sure how the book on the kitchen counter got dirty.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Roll a Possessive

Roll a die. Record the number and word in the first two columns. Roll the die again. Record the number and word in the next two columns. Write a possessive phrase using the two words in the final column.

#	word	#	word	possessive phrase

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____ painting.

Are these

art supplies?

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

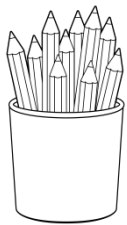

art supplies?

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

art supplies?

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with a possessive noun.

This is _____
painting.

Are these

art supplies?

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined noun
possessive.

The paint that belongs to the girl
is red.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined noun
possessive.

The paint that
belongs to the girl
is red.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined noun
possessive.

The paint that
belongs to the girl
is red.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Rewrite the sentence
making the underlined noun
possessive.

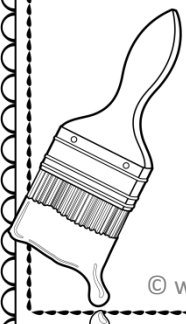

The paint that
belongs to the girl
is red.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct possessive
form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

Are these the

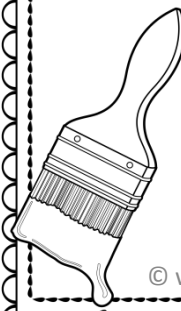

supplies? (singular)

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct possessive
form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

Are these the

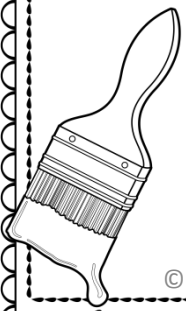

supplies? (singular)

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct possessive
form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

Are these the

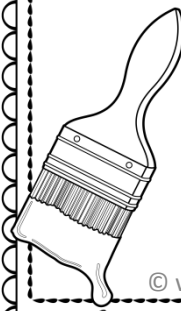

supplies? (singular)

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentences
with the correct possessive
form of artist.

The _____
paintbrushes are missing.
(plural)

Are these the

supplies? (singular)

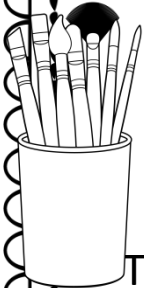

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Complete the sentence with the correct possessive noun and a common noun.

Lashaun has one colored pencil. It is yellow.

_____ is yellow.

The class has artwork. It is wonderful.

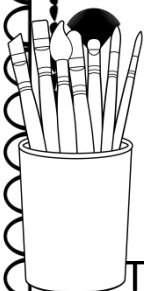

The _____ is wonderful.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Name: _____

Lashaun has one colored pencil. It is yellow.

_____ is yellow.

The class has artwork. It is wonderful.

The _____ is wonderful.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Possessive Nouns

singular possessive
noun plural possessive noun

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Possessive Nouns

singular possessive
noun

plural possessive noun

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

singular possessive nouns

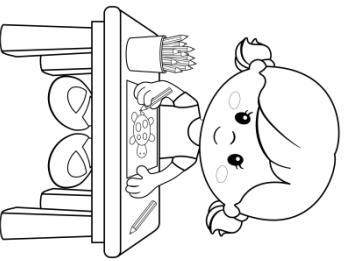

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the artwork
of the girl

the paint that belongs to the teacher

the paintbrush
that belongs to the student

the painting
the artist
made

singular possessive nouns

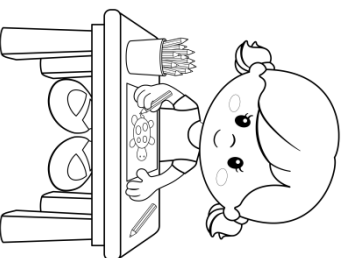

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the artwork
of the girl

the paint that belongs to the teacher

the paintbrush
that belongs to
the student

the painting
the artist
made

plural possessive nouns

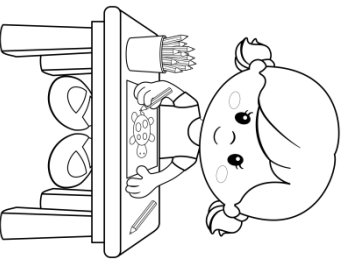

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the drawings
the boys
made

the supplies the artists use

the pencils the students were using the paint the girls had

plural possessive nouns

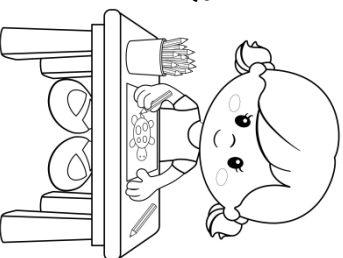

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the drawings
the boys
made

the supplies the artists use

the pencils the students were
using

the paint the girls had

Possessive Noun Search

Look for possessive nouns used in your reading. Record them below.

singular possessive nouns

plural possessive nouns

not possessive nouns

These are tricky because they have apostrophes but aren't possessive nouns!

Possessive Noun Search

Look for possessive nouns used in your reading. Record them below.

singular possessive nouns

plural possessive nouns

not possessive nouns

These are tricky because they have apostrophes but aren't possessive nouns!

Possessive Nouns

A possessive noun shows ownership.

Alicia's favorite color to paint with is purple.

A possessive noun has an apostrophe.

Plural Possessive Nouns

A plural possessive noun shows that an object or objects is owned by more than one person.

These are the boys' paints.

A possessive noun has an apostrophe.

Forming Possessive Nouns

Singular Possessive

Plural Possessive

the hat that belongs to Christie

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the kitten that belongs to Mike

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the cup that belongs to Mom

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the laptop that belongs
to the teacher

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the bananas that belong to Ryan

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the candy that
belongs to her dad

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the pencil that
belongs to the boy

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the book that belongs
to my principal

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the walnut that
belongs to the squirrel

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the chair that
belongs to his uncle

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the scarf that belongs to Chris

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the television that
belongs to Mr. Alexis

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the tusks that belong
to the walrus

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the desk that belong
to the boss

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the horn that belongs
to the rhinoceros

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the whiskers that
belong to the kittens

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the books that belong
to the students

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the pots that belong
to the chefs

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the bows that belong
to the cheerleaders

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the boots that belong
to the boys

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the toys that belong
to the children

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the feathers that belong to the geese

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the teeth that belong
to the lions

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the toothbrushes that belong to the sisters

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the money that belongs to the men

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the phones that belong to the women

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the chairs that belong to the tables

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the mats that belong to the gymnasts

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the basketballs that belong
to the players

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

the lessons that belong to the teachers

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Sentences with Plurals

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Sentences with Possessives

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Sentences with Contractions

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The children sat on the stools
in the science room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

My mom turned on all the
lamps in the house.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna played with the toys
in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog hid his bones all
over the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Aaron set his books on
the counter in the kitchen.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The child's stool was too tall for the science table.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The lamp's light was very dim in the dark house.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna's toy was lost somewhere in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog's bone was hidden in the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The book's pages got dirty on the kitchen counter.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The stool wasn't too tall for the science table.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The lamp isn't bright enough for the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Anna told Cara she couldn't find the toy in the living room.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The dog can't find the bone that was hidden in the backyard.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com

We aren't sure how the book on the kitchen counter got dirty.

© www.thecurriculumcorner.com