"I Can" Read (Reading - Foundational Skills) I can read words by using what I know about letters and sounds. \square I can show what I have learned about letters and sounds by figuring out words. \square I can read long and short vowels correctly in words. \square I can spell and read vowel teams. ☐ I can read longer words with long vowel sounds. \square I can read words with prefixes and suffixes. □ I can read words that don't follow normal spelling rules, but are common. ☐ I can read second grade words that aren't spelled the way they sound. I can easily read, show expression and understand the books I choose. ☐ I can read and understand books at my level well. \square I can read and understand second grade books. ☐ I can read second grade books aloud like a teacher would read them □ I can stop when I am reading and fix words that I mess up or that don't sound right.

'I Can" Read Fiction (Reading - Literature) I can read, understand and tell about fiction stories. \square I can ask and answer questions to show that I understand stories. o (who, what, where, when, why and how) ☐ I can remember and retell different kinds of stories. ☐ I can read a story and share what the author is trying to teach. ☐ I can describe how characters in a story react to important events in the story. ☐ I can tell how words in stories, poems or songs can give them rhythm and help people understand them better. ☐ I can describe how a story is written including the important parts of a beginning and an ending. \square I can show that I know the characters in a story by telling details about them \square I can show that I know the characters in a story by using different character voices when I read aloud. \square I can use what I learn from pictures and words to show that I understand the characters, setting and events of a story. \square I can tell how two or more tellings of a story can be the same and different. ☐ I can read and understand second grade stories and poems by myself.

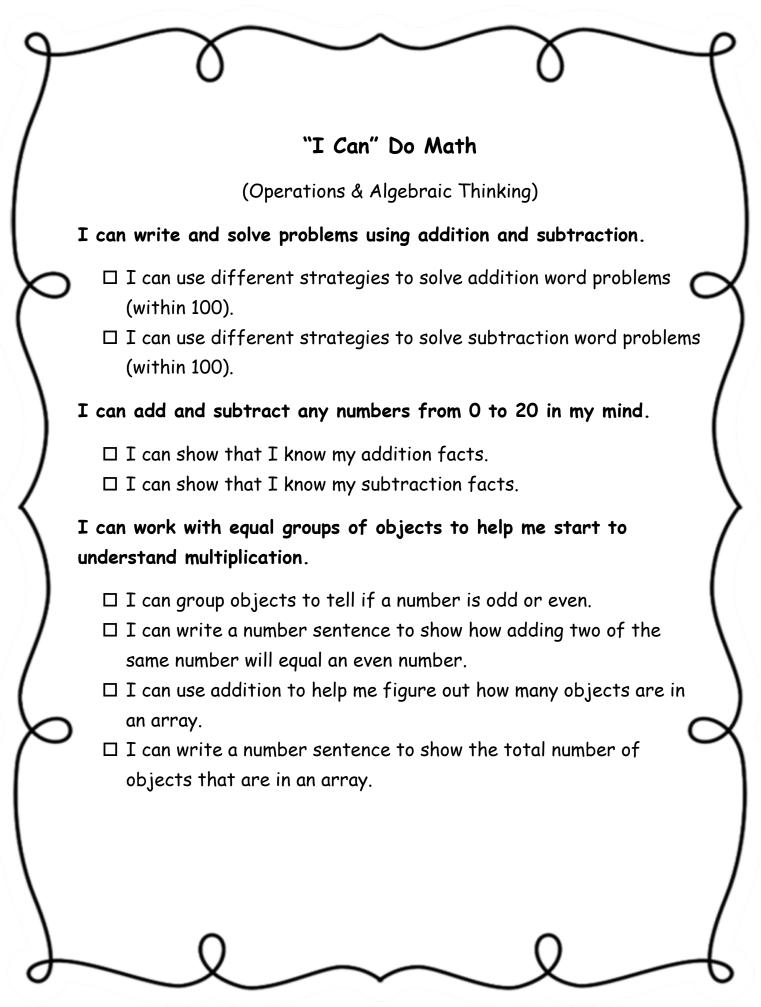

"I Can" Read Nonfiction (Reading - Informational Text) I can read, understand and tell about nonfiction texts. \square I can ask and answer questions to show that I understand nonfictions texts. (who, what, where, when, why and how) \square I can tell the main idea of a piece of nonfiction text. \square I can tell the focus of important paragraphs in nonfiction texts. ☐ I can make connections between different events in history. ☐ I can make connections between different science ideas. □ I can make connections between the different steps in a set of directions. □ I can figure out the meanings of new words when I am studying a second grade topic. ☐ I can understand and use all the helpful parts of nonfiction books to find important facts and details quickly. □ I can tell the author's main purpose in nonfiction writing. ☐ I can use diagrams and pictures to help me understand nonfiction texts. \square I can describe how an author's reasons support the important ideas that are shared. □ I can tell how the important ideas in two pieces of nonfiction about the same topic are the same and different. \square I can read and understand second grade nonfiction texts by myself.

9	7
	"I Can" Write
/	(Writing)
1	can create different types of writing for different reasons.
	\square I can write my opinion about a topic and give reasons for my thinking.
\triangleright	☐ I can write to teach about a topic by giving facts about the topic.
(□ I can write to teach about a topic by providing new words and definitions about the topic.
\	☐ I can write to tell an organized story with details about events,
$\bigg)$	thoughts and feelings. □ I can listen to others' ideas for revising and editing my writing and use the advice to make my writing better. □ I can use a computer or tablet to publish my writing.
1	can research topics with my class to help us write about them.
	 □ I can help my class explore books and write about what we learn. □ I can work with friends to make and record notes about science experiments.
	□ I can use what I have learned to answer questions or I can find the answers somewhere else.
7	2 2

9	7	P
	"I Can" Share & Listen	\
/	(Speaking and Listening)	1
	I can have and understand conversations with all kinds of people.
\searrow	□ I can show that I know how to have good conversations with my friends and teachers.□ I can listen, wait to take my turn and be respectful when I am	\propto having conversations. □ I can make conversations better by making connections between what other people say.
	 □ I can ask questions during conversations to help me understand what is being shared. □ I can talk about the important ideas and details after I listen to
\langle	someone read or speak. □ I can ask and answer questions about what a speaker says to help me understand the information better.	\rangle
	I can share my ideas and what I have learned. □ I can tell or share a story with important details to help others
(_	understand it better. □ I can speak loudly, clearly and in complete sentences when I tell or share a story.
	 □ I can make a recording of a story or poem. □ I can use drawings or other similar things to help people understand me better. 	X
	☐ I can speak and share my ideas in complete sentences when someone asks me a question.
}	2 _ 2 _	L

"I Can" Use Proper English (Writing) I can use proper English when I write and speak. \square I can use words correctly when I write and speak. \square I can use collective nouns correctly. (a group of people, a pride of lions) \square I can make and use irregular plural nouns correctly. (feet, children, teeth, mice, fish) ☐ I can use reflexive pronouns correctly. (himself, myself, ourselves). ☐ I can make and use common regular verbs (action words) correctly. (sat, hid, told). ☐ I can use adjectives and correctly to describe nouns (people, places and things). \square I can use adverbs correctly to describe verbs (action words). \square I can create and use complete simple sentences. \square I can create and use complete compound sentences. \square I can show that I know how to write sentences correctly. \square I can use capital letters at the beginnings of proper nouns. (holidays, product names and places on a map) \square I can use commas correctly in the greetings and closings of letters. ☐ I can use apostrophes to make contractions. \square I can use apostrophes to show possession. \square I can use spelling patterns I know to write words. ☐ I can use different resources to check and correct my spelling.

7	- 0 $ 0$
	I can use what I know about language in different situations.
	 □ I can write, speak, read and listen by using what I know about the English language. □ I can compare formal and informal ways that people speak English.
\triangleright	I can figure out what words mean and use them in different situations.
	□ I can figure out what words mean by using the strategies I know and by thinking about what I have read.
	 □ I can use context clues to help me understand new words. □ I can use prefixes that I know to help me understand new words. □ I can use root words to help me understand new words.
\langle	☐ I can use the meanings of the two smaller words in a compound word to make a prediction about what it means.
	 □ I can use glossaries, dictionaries or the internet to help me find the meanings of new words. □ I can figure out how words are related and how their meanings
/	might be alike. □ I can find real-life connections between words and the way they
(_	are used. (foods can be spicy or juicy)
	☐ I can tell the difference between similar verbs. (toss, throw, hurl)
	□ I can tell the difference between similar adjectives. (thin, slender, skinny, scrawny)
	\square I can use the new words I learn in different ways to show that I know what they mean.
1

"I Can" Do Math (Numbers & Operations in Base Ten) I can understand place value. ☐ I can understand and use hundreds, tens and ones to show numbers. \square I can show that I understand a bundle of ten "tens" is called a "hundred". □ I can show I understand that when I count by hundreds, they all have a certain number of hundreds, 0 tens and 0 ones. \square I can count to 1,000 by ones, fives, tens and hundreds. \square I can read and write numbers to 1,000 in different ways. \square I can compare three-digit numbers using <, =, and > because I understand hundreds, tens and ones. I can use what I know about place value to help me add and subtract. ☐ I can add two-digit numbers. ☐ I can subtract two-digit numbers. ☐ I can add two, three and four 2-digit numbers to find their sum. \square I can use strategies to add numbers within 1,000 and know when to regroup. \square I can use strategies to subtract numbers within 1,000 and know when to borrow ☐ I can use mental math to add and subtract 10 or 100 to any number from 100 to 900 □ I can explain why adding and subtracting strategies work using what I know about place value.

"I Can" Do Math (Measurement & Data) I can measure and estimate lengths of objects. \square I can use different types of tools to measure objects. ☐ I can use two different units to measure the same object and tell how the measurements compare. ☐ I can estimate the lengths of objects using inches, feet, centimeters and meters. □ I can tell the difference between the lengths of two different objects. I can use what I know about addition and subtraction to understand length. ☐ I can use addition and subtraction to solve measurement problems. ☐ I can make and use a number line. I can understand how to tell time. □ I can tell time to the five minute marks on a clock. ☐ I can use a.m. and p.m. correctly when I am telling time. I can count money. \square I can count money to help me solve word problems. I can understand how information is shared using numbers. $\hfill \square$ I can make a table to organize information about measurement. \square I can show measurements by making a line plot. \square I can draw a picture graph to share number information. \square I can draw a bar graph to share number information. \square I can solve problems using information from a bar graph.

