Good Reasons to Abandon Books

- The book is too easy – it doesn’t make me think
- The book is too hard – I don’t understand what is happening
  - I don’t like the topic
  - The book is boring
- I found another book I like better
  - I don’t like the genre
  - I don’t like the author
- I’m just abandoning it for now – I will read it later

Buzzing About Books

• Sit close.
• Listen actively.
• Whisper.
• Take turns talking.
• Ask questions.
• Pay attention.
• TALK! (ONLY about books!)
Fluency is...

• Reading smoothly, like you are talking
• Reading at a good pace
• Reading with expression
What Good Readers Do

• Read every day.
• Read “just right” books.
• Reread some stories.
• Use reading strategies when they come to words they don’t know.
• Think about what they already know to help them understand.
• Take good care of books.
• Make connections to stories.
• Make pictures in their minds (visualize).
  • Make predictions.
  • Ask questions.
• Use pictures to help them understand what is happening.
• Think about what they have read.
• Refresh their memory from the day before by rereading a little bit.
What Independent Reading Looks Like . . .

- Read, think or write about your reading the whole time.
- Whispering voices only (& always about reading!)
- Stay in one spot
- Keep your eyes & mind on your book.
- Read “just right” books most of the time.
- The teacher is busy reading with students.

Biographies

When will I take notes?

• When I learn an important fact about the person.
• When the person I am reading about does something important.
• When I am thinking: “I WONDER...?”
• When I find new vocabulary words.
• When I make a new picture in my mind that helps me understand what I am reading.
• When I feel something about what I am reading.
When I am reading independently in our small group and I get stuck, I can...

- reread once or twice to see if I understand better
- talk to a friend and ask a question
- try to make connections to see if it helps me understand
- highlight or underline words I don't know so that I can ask my teacher
Fluent Readers

Read with expression!
Readers should think about a character’s feelings and pay attention to punctuation.

Focus on rate.
Readers should read like they talk.

Read in phrases.
Readers should not read word for word.

Think about meaning. Does what I’m reading make sense?
