

Empowered Beginnings: Leading the Way

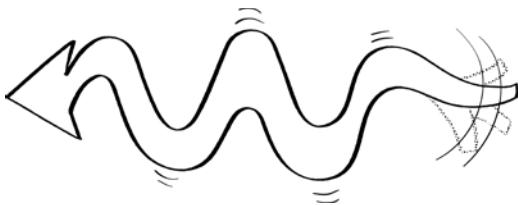

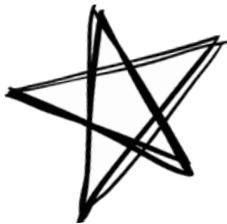

Name

Empowered

Beginnings: Leading the Way in Sixth Grade

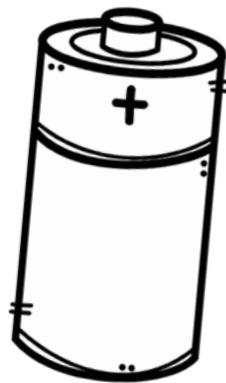

Name

Leadership is a journey of self-discovery;
embrace the process and continually strive to better yourself.

Potential

Reflection: How can a person's potential be compared to a battery?

What potential do you hold inside of you? What are your strengths? What skills do you have? What could you be better at with a little practice?

1.

2.

3.

Use words and pictures to explain each word.

worth

potential

How do you think these words will fit together in our classroom?

inspired hope

Use words and pictures to explain each word.

contribute

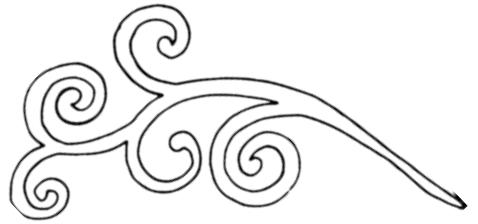

propel

How do you think these words will fit together in our classroom?

change

culture

Our class mission statement:

Handwriting practice lines for the class mission statement.

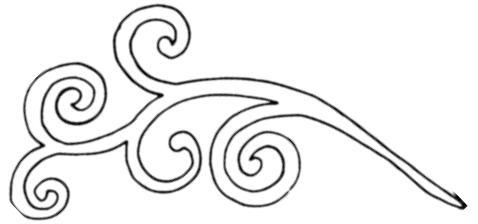

How will I work to help our class achieve this?

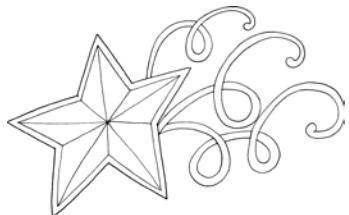

Handwriting practice lines for the student's response.

My personal mission statement:

Handwriting practice lines for the personal mission statement.

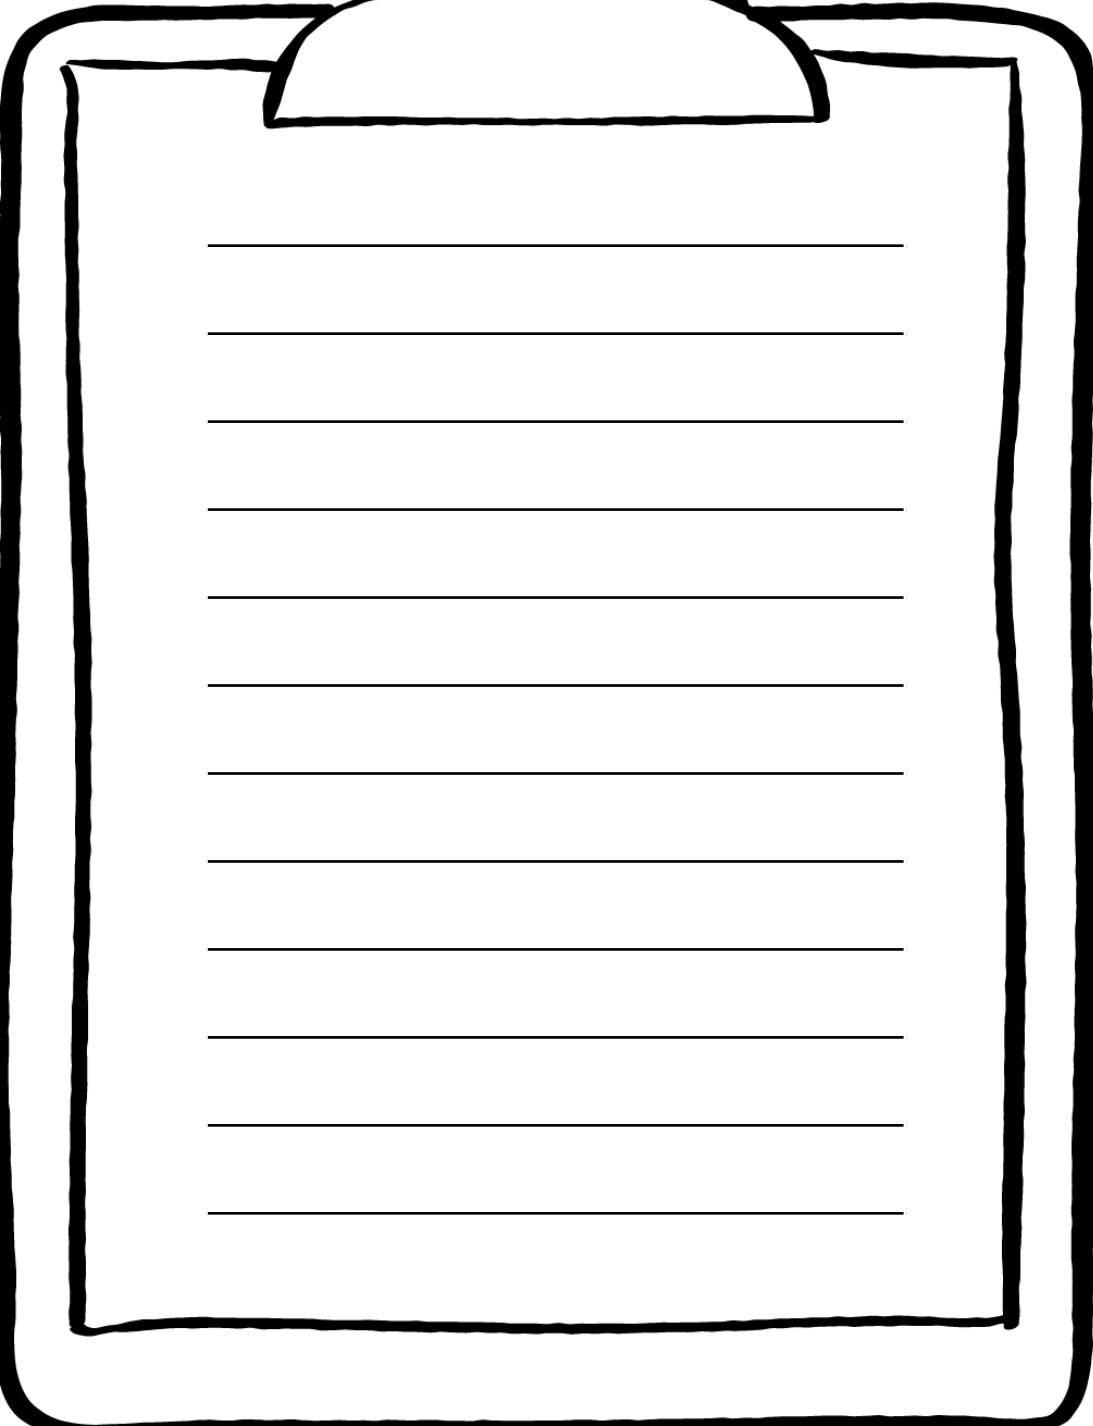

How will I work to help myself achieve this?

Handwriting practice lines for the action steps.

What character traits
do you think a leader should possess?

A large, hand-drawn style clipboard is positioned in the center of the page. It has a dark, thick black outline. The clipboard is holding a single sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. There are ten lines in total, with a slightly larger top line and a smaller bottom line for a signature. The clipboard is mounted on a light-colored background with decorative borders.

Inspiration in Action

You will work with your group to learn about one individual who took initiative to make a difference. Record your notes below.

Always try your best

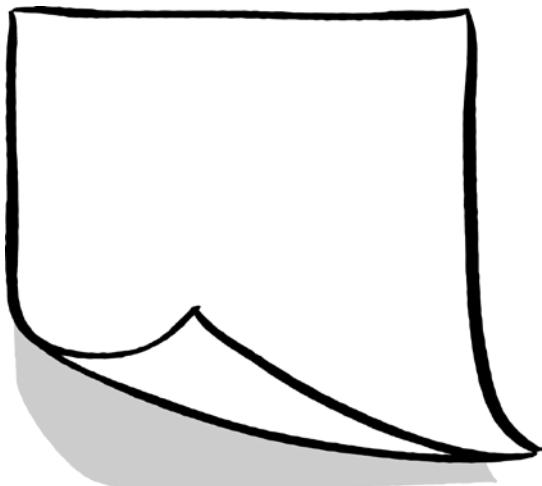

Read the poem by Barbara Vance. What is the author's message? What connections can you make to what you read? Share your thoughts and reactions to the poem. You can fill the space below with words and pictures.

If you always try your best
Then you'll never have to wonder
About what you could have done
If you'd summoned all your thunder.

And if your best
Was not as good
As you hoped it would be,
You still could say,
“I gave today
All that I had in me.”

Excerpt from “Suzie Bitner” was Afraid of the Drain’ by Barbara Vance

Who am I?

Think about it: What makes you unique? These qualities will help you find ways to contribute to our classroom community.

Decorate the book pages to help others learn about you.