

Name: _____

Title: _____

What was the goal of the author in writing this article:

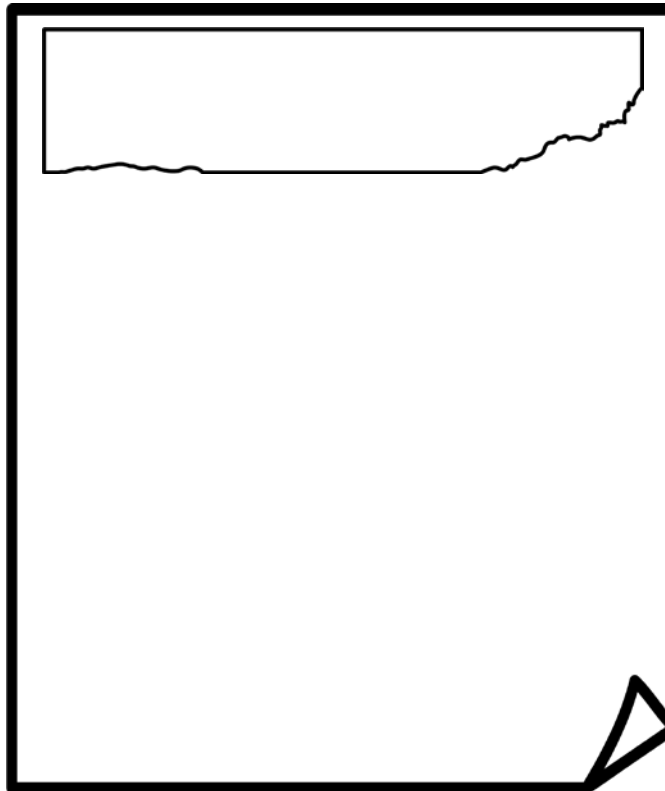

How many sections are in the piece of informational text? _____ (include the introduction)

Label each page with the heading for the section. Write one sentence that tells what the section is about.

I wonder...

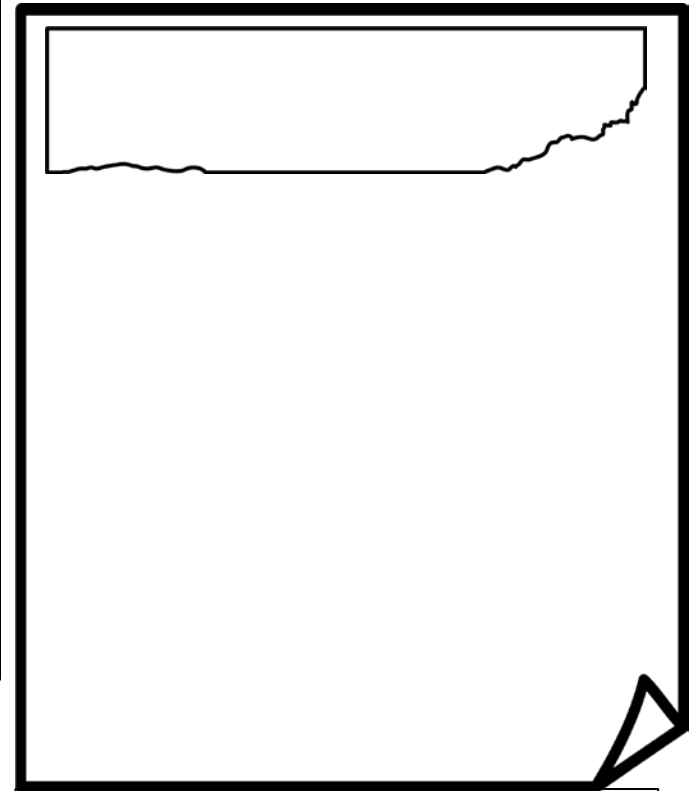

(What are you curious about after reading?)

I wonder...

(What are you curious about after reading?)

@www.thecurriculumcorner.com

I wonder...

(What are you curious about after reading?)

I wonder...

(What are you curious about after reading?)

I wonder...

(What are you curious about after reading?)

I wonder...

(What are you curious about after reading?)

What text features of informational text does the author include in the reading?

Name: _____

Title: _____

What was the goal of the author in writing this article:

How many sections are in the piece of informational text? _____ (include the introduction)

Label each box with the heading for the section. Write one sentence that tells what the section is about.

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Main idea of this section: _____

Name: _____

Title: _____

Two sides are presented in this article. Add a heading for each viewpoint. Under the viewpoint, record the support found in the article. You will have four pieces of support for each viewpoint. Each piece must be different.

Viewpoint 1

| |
|--|
| |
|--|

Support

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |

Viewpoint 2

| |
|--|
| |
|--|

Support

| |
|--|
| |
| |
| |
| |