

Where would you go?

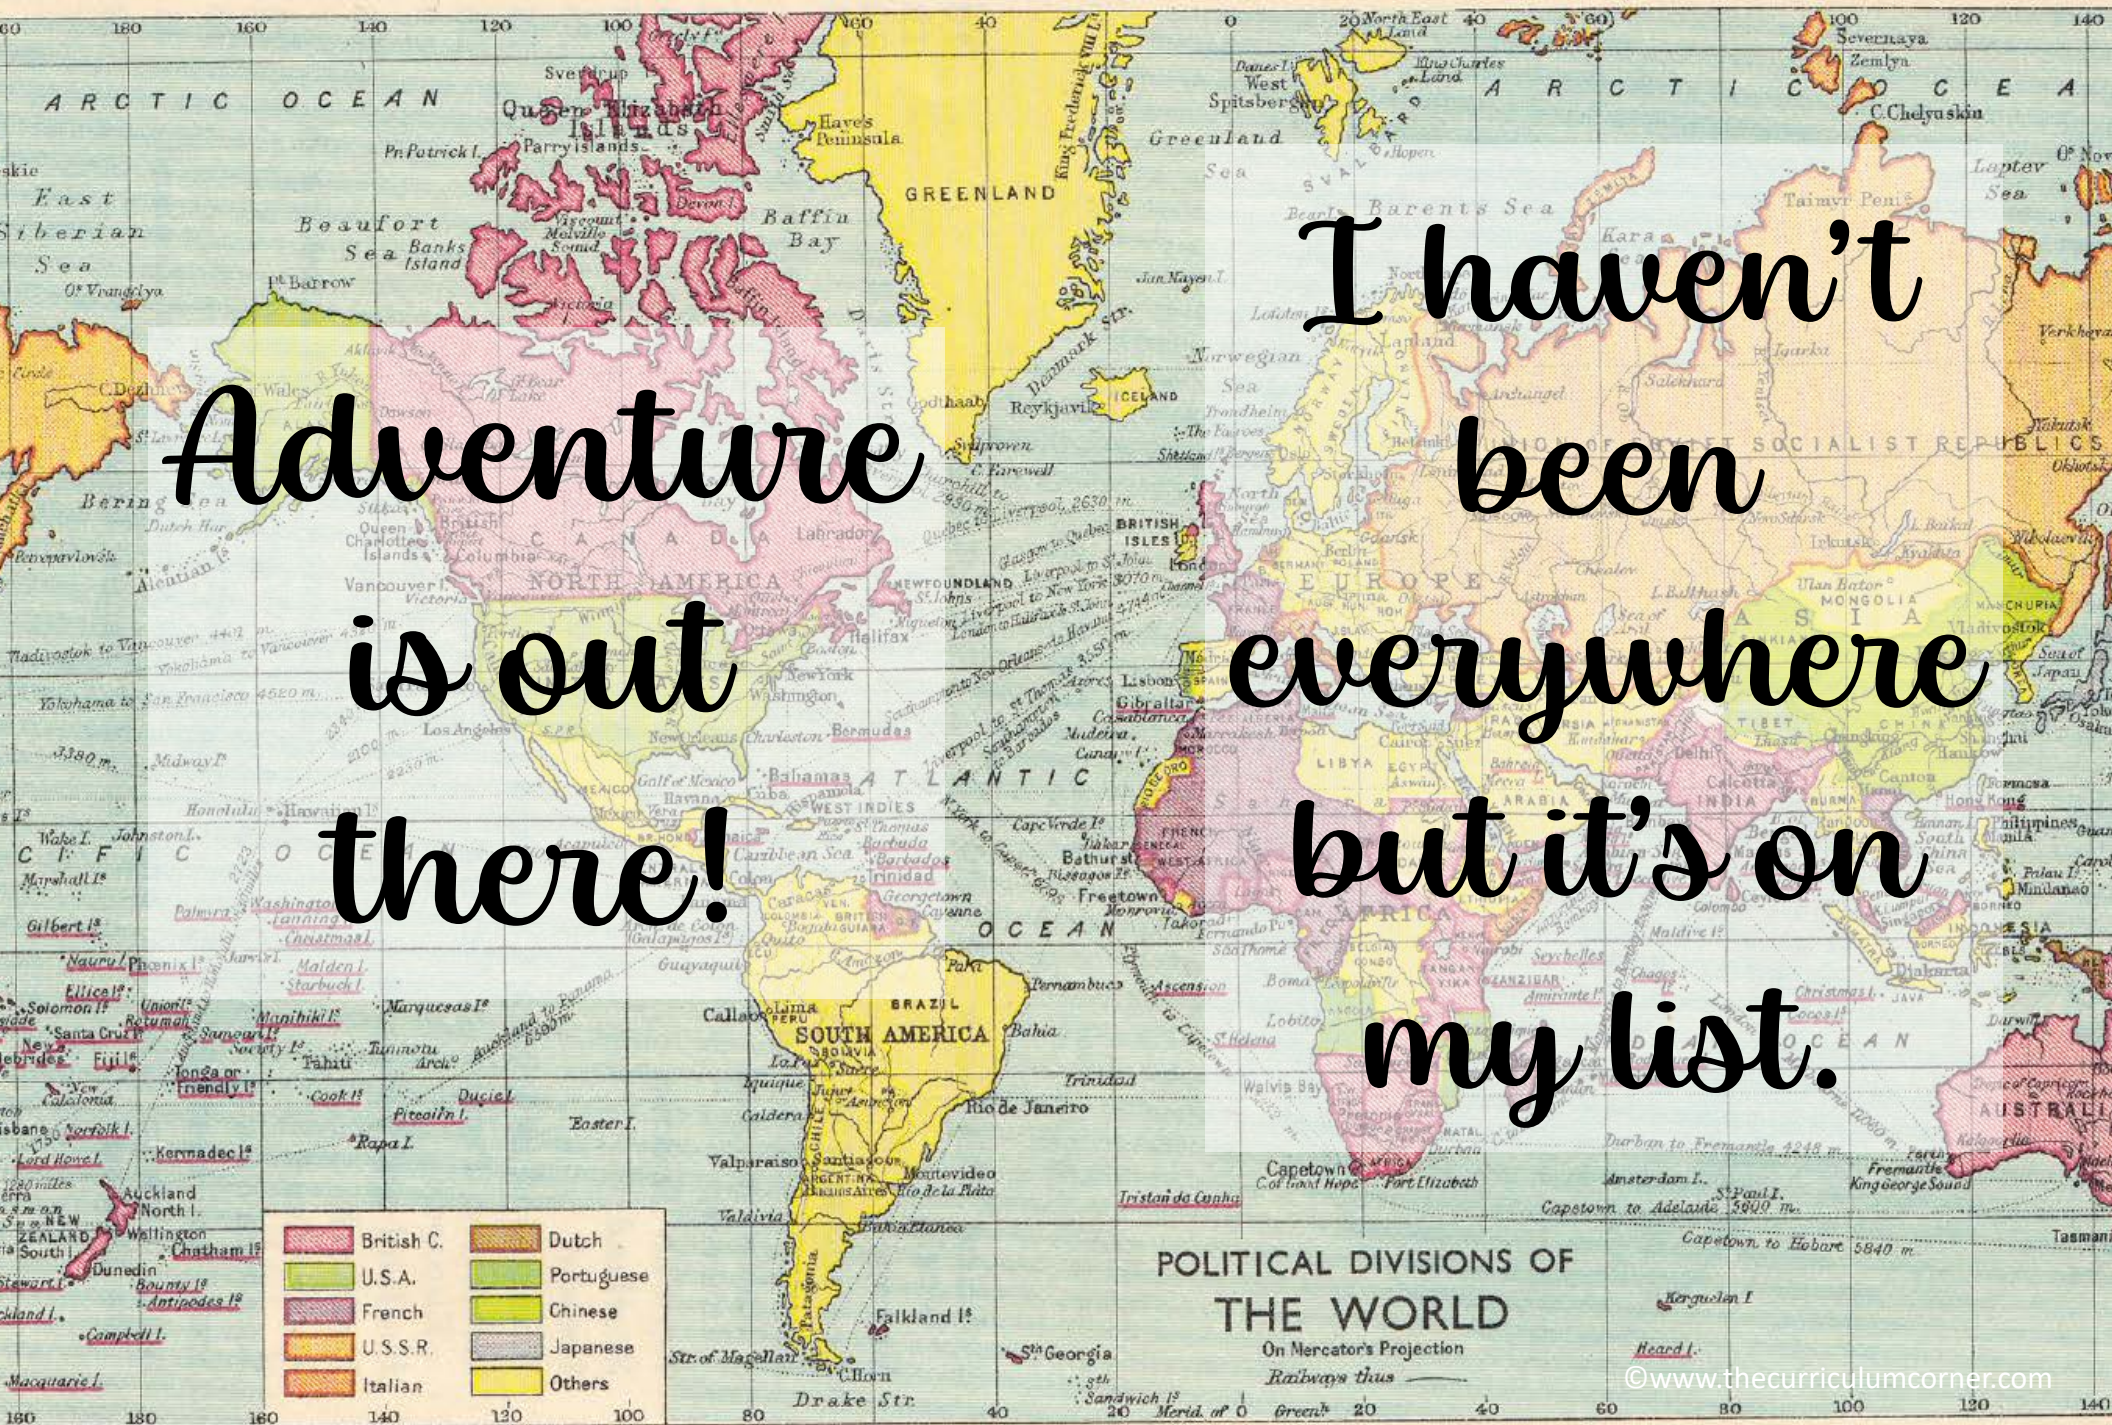

Explore the world!

	British C.		Dutch
	U.S.A.		Portuguese
	French		Chinese
	U.S.S.R.		Japanese
	Italian		Others

POLITICAL DIVISIONS OF THE WORLD

On Mercator's Projection
Railways thus —

I haven't Adventure
been
is out
everywhere
there!
but it's on my list.

HELLO, World!

Oh, the PLACES
we will go!

POLITICAL DIVISIONS OF
THE WORLD

On Mercator's Projection
Railways thus —

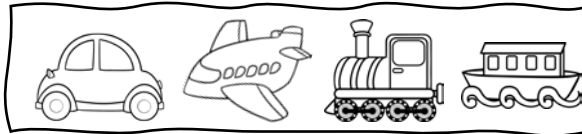

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Reminders: Your notes should not be complete sentences! Be careful with your spelling! If you are copying a word, you should spell it correctly.

NAME: _____

I will travel to...

How will you get there?

Do you need a passport?

- ☐ yes
☐ no

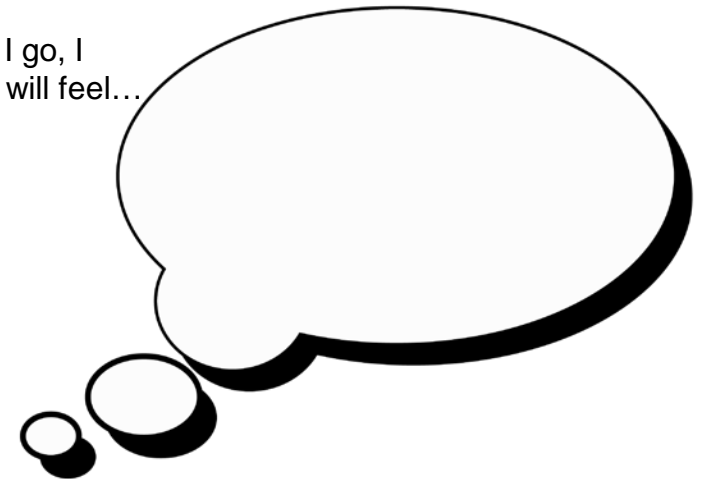

What language or languages do
the citizens speak?

Mark your destination on the map.

When I go, I think I will feel...

Packing List

(Remember, look and see what the weather will be like when you visit!)

LOCATION

Latitude:

Longitude:

What type of government do they have? Who is their current leader?

Foods I might eat...

(If you don't think you will try new foods, what foods do people in their country often eat?)

Other important notes... (landforms, sports, animals, holidays)

⊖ One word to describe this destination is... ⊖

--

Things I want to do or see...

(name at least 3)

The country's flag

--

NAME: _____

PLAN YOUR POSTCARD

I will draw or use a picture of...

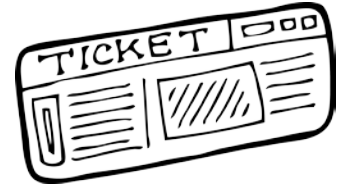

Where will you send your postcard?

Address

_____ (first & last name)

_____ (street)

_____ (city, state, zip code)

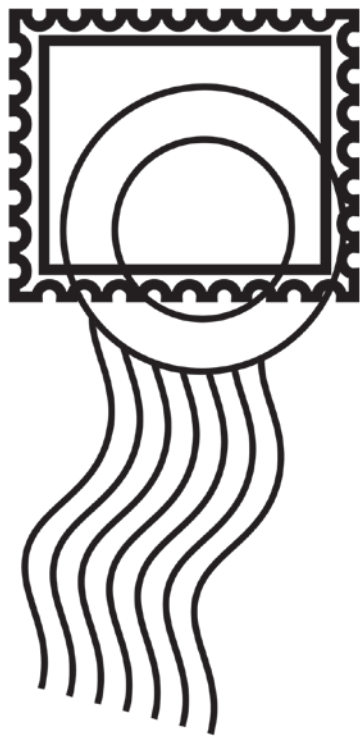

What will you write? Remember to start with a greeting. Next, share where you are. You might include the language people in the country speak, what the weather is like, and the foods you have tried. You will tell the recipient a little bit about your trip and what you saw. Your writing should be between six and nine sentences long. Your writing should show evidence of your research.

Dear _____,

Your friend

When you are finished, check your writing! You will need to read your writing at least two times!

- ☐ My sentences begin with capital letters and end with punctuation marks.
- ☐ Proper nouns begin with capital letters.
- ☐ I have spelled words from my research correctly.
- ☐ My sentences make sense.
- ☐ I have included information from my research.

Five vertical lines for writing.

Thirteen vertical lines for writing.

NAME:

GRADING RUBRIC

CHOOSE YOUR DESTINATION PROJECT

+ /30

	Amazing	Good	OK	Missing Parts	Missing Many Parts
Research	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
Rough draft	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points
Postcard	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
illustration	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points

NAME:

GRADING RUBRIC

CHOOSE YOUR DESTINATION PROJECT

+ /30

	Amazing	Good	OK	Missing Parts	Missing Many Parts
Research	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
Rough draft	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points
Postcard	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
illustration	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points

NAME:

GRADING RUBRIC

CHOOSE YOUR DESTINATION PROJECT

+ /30

	Amazing	Good	OK	Missing Parts	Missing Many Parts
Research	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
Rough draft	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points
Postcard	10 points	8 points	7 points	6 points	5 points
illustration	5 points	4 points	3 points	2 points	1 points