

“I Can”!

Early Expressive Oral Language Learning

- I can show what I mean using my body.
- I can tell what I need using my words.
- I can talk to my friends and listen to them talk back to me about things we have done.
- I can understand rhyming sounds and words.
- I can play rhyming games.
- I can sing rhyming songs and say rhyming poems.
- I can tell what happens in a story.
- I can show that I understand up and down.
- I can show that I understand top and bottom.
- I can show that I understand on and off.
- I can show that I understand over and under.
- I can show that I know some words begin the same way.
- I can tell how many parts there are in a word.
- I can make new words by changing some of the sounds.
- I can show that I am learning new words all the time.
- I can show how letters make sounds.
- I can show that I know some words.