

“I Can”!

Early Receptive Oral Language Learning

- I can answer questions in the right way.
- I can tell where sounds come from.
- I can tell how some sounds are alike and different.
- I can hear patterns in rhymes, chants and poems.
- I can remember things I hear in stories.
- I can remember the order things happen in stories.
- I can understand how people feel by listening to their voice.
- I can listen to someone who is talking.
- I can understand and do what someone tells me to do.
- I can listen to a book and talk about it.
- I can talk back and forth with another person.
- I can show that I understand stories and music by acting them out or talking about them.