

Jack and the Beanstalk

Name: _____

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

A mom and her son Jack lived on a farm.

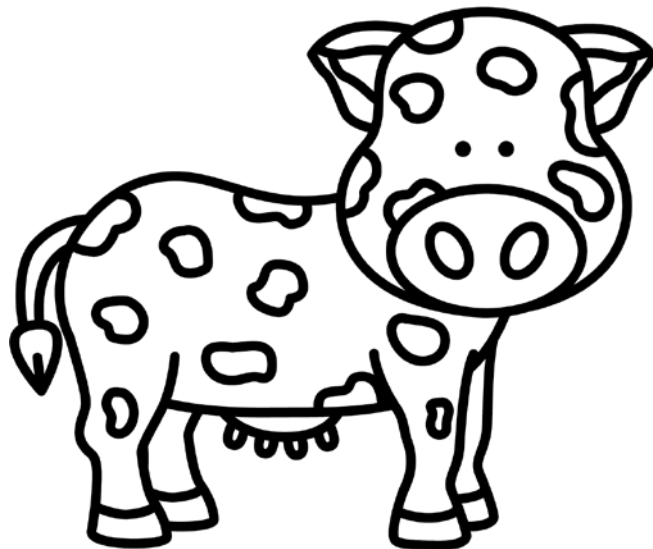

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack and his mom worked very hard on the farm.
They worked hard but didn't have enough food.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack's mom sent Jack to town to sell their cow.
Jack was told to use the money to buy seeds
for a good crop of food.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

An old man made a deal with Jack.
He told Jack he had magical beans.
Jack traded his cow for the magical beans.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack's mom was not happy.
She threw the beans on the ground.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

In the morning, Jack found a tall beanstalk growing towards the sky.

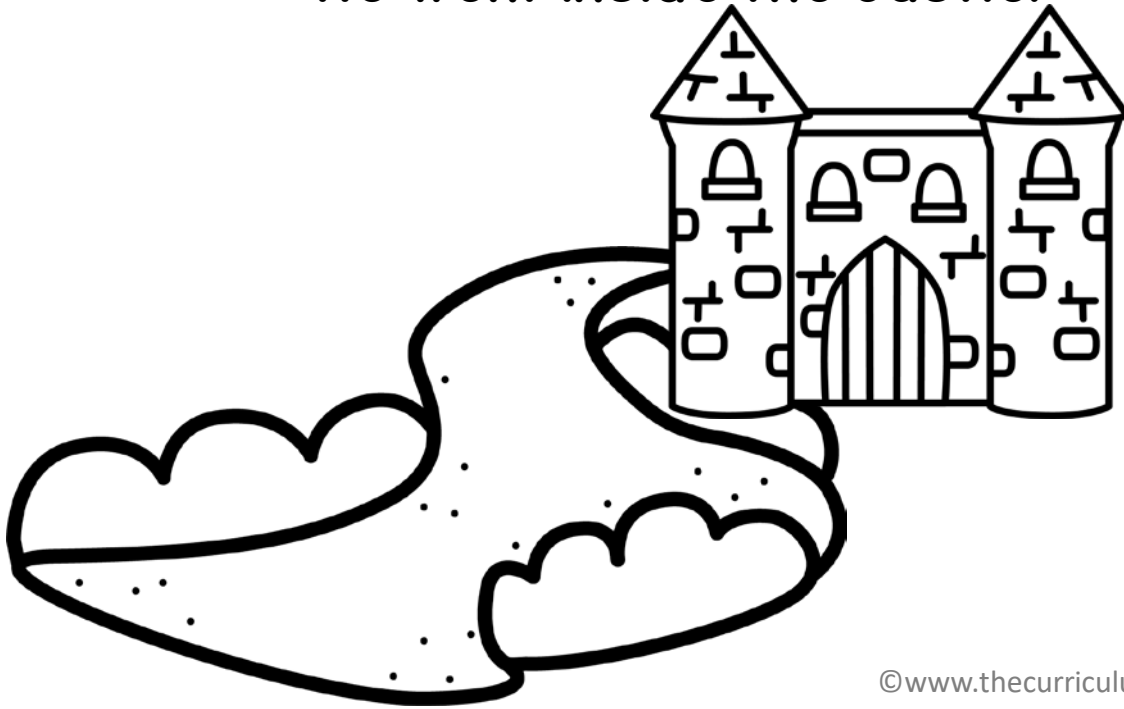

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack climbed and climbed to the sky.

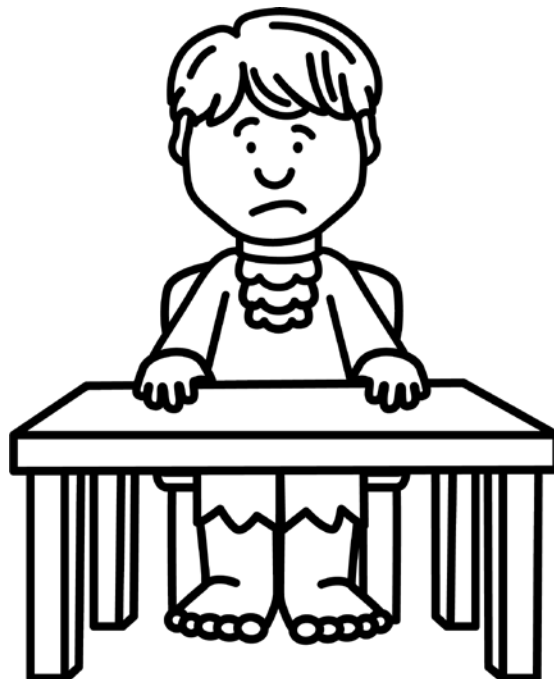

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack found a road that led to a castle.
He went inside the castle.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

A giant came inside the castle.
Jack hid from the giant.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack saw the giant's hen that laid golden eggs.
He saw a golden harp that put the giant to sleep.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

When the giant fell asleep, Jack took the harp.

Then Jack took the hen.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

The giant woke up and chased Jack. Jack ran to the beanstalk and climbed to the bottom. When he got to the bottom, he chopped down the beanstalk.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com

Jack and his mom took good care of the hen. The hen laid golden eggs for them. Jack and his mom were able to buy food and take care of their farm. They lived happily ever after.

©www.thecurriculumcorner.com